

The action by various banks to amend IN no call law is not in my best interest, nor would I believe in anyone's best interest. If my bank needs to call me, then they do. If you change this then I feel we are taking a step backwards were I get all sorts of annoying calls from people I have no desire to talk to. Please do not change the IN no call law.

Brendan & Janice Moore